Agency Overview

Women's Crisis Services of Waterloo Region provides emergency shelter to women and children escaping abusive relationships. We operate 2 shelters: Anselma House in Kitchener and Haven House in Cambridge. Our facilities operate on a 24/7 basis. We believe every woman and child deserves to live a life free from violence.

Position Overview

The Residential Support Worker supports women and children to move beyond violence by providing crisis line support, safety planning, ongoing assessment, emotional support through one to one and group activities, community referrals/information, discharge planning and advocacy. Workers assist women to adapt to communal living and facilitate their transition to independence.

Required Skills and Qualifications

Education Requirements

- BSW and/or MSW from a University of recognized standing. Experience in a related field would be an asset, or related or relevant degree or diploma from a recognized university and/or college along with 5 years' experience in a related field.
- PLUS a member in good standing with the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers. If not a member, this must be attained during the probationary period.

Skill Requirements

- Continuous priority setting and flexibility is required due to the lack of control over crisis situations and in meeting the needs of multiple job expectations.
